DISCUSSED CUBA
6 DEC 60

On December 6 [1960], Senator Kennedy came to the White House, at my invitation, for a discussion on the transfer of responsibilities. Immediately after the meeting with Senator Kennedy I dictated a seven page memorandum [see Appendix BB].

We talked at considerable length of organization, of financial problems, including the imbalance of payments, of Berlin, Cuba, . . .

Appendix BB notes among other items the following:

p. 712. That Cuba was one of the first three items that Kennedy wanted to discuss. "He had previously been briefed by Allen Dulles a number of times and had some familiarity with the details of these three subjects."
